2. Golf Play and Improvement Package

Includes:

San Diego Country Club - One complimentary round of golf for four (4) at the historical and legendary San Diego course.

It all began in 1897 when the club's first facility of nine holes was built in Balboa Park on land donated by the City of San Diego. In 1920, 157 acres was purchased in Chula Vista. On September 3, 1921, the 23,000 square foot clubhouse, designed by the noted architect, Richard S. Requa, and the golf course designed by a young William Watson, were officially opened.

Its clubs most famous member, the late Billy Casper has hosted many prestigious events in its rich history including the annual Intercollegiate tournament, U S Open, U S Amateur and U S Senior Open qualifying and the Southern California Golf Association Amateur Championship, all of which testify to the superb design and conditioning found at San Diego Country Club.
